Which selection do you have to pass?

A three step LH-Group Selection is applied. The Eurowings selection process consists of the Basic Qualification (BQ), the SIM Screening and the Corporate Qualification (CQ). The selection process is conducted in cooperation with the company Interpersonal in Hamburg. The screenings may take place in BER, FRA, ESS, MUC, PRG or VIE.

During the BQ, the following skills and abilities will be tested: English, aviation proficiency, mathematics, mental arithmetic, logical thinking, psychomotor skills, attention, concentration, spatial orientation, multitasking. You can prepare yourself in advance using an online training tool. During the CQ the focus lies on the personality traits of the candidates. The day consists of interviews, group exercises and role-play exercises.

A separate procedure may be applicable if you are presently employed at a LH-Group airline.

How does training look like?

Candidates with a valid A320 rating go through an Operator Conversion (OCC). This course lasts about 3 weeks. The costs for the training will be covered by Eurowings Europe GmbH. Candidates without a valid A320 rating will receive a Type Rating. The duration is about 3 months. For Type Rating costs, a bonding is contractually agreed for the period of 2 years.
